Magellan Financial Group unveils refreshed corporate brand and new identity for investment management business

Magellan Financial Group Ltd (“MFG”) has today announced a refreshed corporate brand and introduced a new brand for its investment management business, Magellan Investment Partners.

The updated branding strategy reflects the breadth of MFG’s business today and its strategy for the future, and aims to provide shareholders, clients and other key stakeholders with greater clarity when investing or partnering with MFG.

Sophia Rahmani, CEO and Managing Director of MFG, said: “These updates to our brand reflect our commitment to building an innovative financial services business that continues to unearth unique opportunities across investment management and specialist financial services.

“The launch of Magellan Investment Partners as the new face of our investment management business allows us to showcase investment solutions we deliver to our clients under a distinct identity, while MFG remains focused on corporate strategy, governance and long-term value creation for shareholders.

“MFG has a strong heritage, and this evolution allows us to honour that history while better positioning ourselves for the future.”

MFG remains committed to delivering meaningful long-term outcomes for shareholders by bringing together experts and accomplished strategic partners to deliver premium solutions that stay ahead of the sectors in which we operate.

Magellan Investment Partners represents the investment management business within MFG, with around $40 billion in assets under management¹. It remains focused on delivering high-quality, innovative solutions through a carefully selected portfolio of investment strategies, managed by experienced teams with strong track records. Teams may be 100% owned or strategic partners of MFG.

The suite of investment solutions currently distributed by Magellan Investment Partners are managed by Magellan Global Equities, Magellan Global Listed Infrastructure, Airlie Funds Management and Vinva Investment Management^{2,3}. While the visual identity has been updated, there will be no changes to funds, investment teams or strategies because of the branding changes.

MFG’s shareholder information is now available on its new dedicated website at www.magellanfinancialgroup.com, while information on Magellan Investment Partners’ client solutions can be accessed at www.magellaninvestmentpartners.com.

² Magellan Investment Partner is the distribution partner for Vinva’s insight-driven systematic equity strategies to clients around the world (excluding Australian institutional clients).

³ Economic ownership: Magellan Global Equities, Magellan Global Listed Infrastructure and Airlie Funds Management - 100%; Vinva Investment Management - 29%; Barrenjoey Capital Partners - 36%; FinClear - 16%.
