Southern Hemisphere Mining Limited ("Southern Hemisphere" or "the Company") (ASX: SUH) is pleased to announce that the Company has dual listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (FWB), under the ticker code N4K.

The Frankfurt listing will enlarge the Company's investor reach and increase its exposure to European markets, which will complement the Company's strategy of being a global player in the copper and battery metal markets.

Mark Stowell, Chairman commented: "We are pleased to have listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, to provide the Company with greater exposure to the European investment community. We are also pleased to be working with Dr Reuter Investor Relations, whom works with many Australian companies listed on the FWB."

To assist in promotional marketing, the Company has engaged with an investor relations group in Germany, Dr Reuter Investor Relations. Dr Reuter Investor Relations assists in supporting companies to attract important target groups. Dr Reuter Investor Relations has worked with many Australian listed companies significantly increase trading volumes on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

The Company looks forward to working with Dr Reuter Investor Relations and welcoming new investors.

This announcement has been approved for release by the Company's board of directors.
