Sinclair Nickel Project Tenements

Talisman Mining Ltd (ASX: TLM) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Talisman Nickel Pty Ltd, has now lodged with the Western Australian Department of Mines and Petroleum (DMP) the transfer of title documents to the Sinclair Nickel Project tenements.

Talisman recently received the stamp duty assessment from the Western Australian Office of State Revenue with regard to the purchase of the Sinclair Nickel Project.

This stamp duty assessment has now been paid by Talisman.

As a consequence, Talisman has been able to lodge the stamped tenement transfers for formal registration in Talisman Nickel's name with the DMP.

The registration of the tenements by the DMP will permit Talisman Nickel to lodge Programs of Works for potential future exploration activities at the Sinclair Nickel Project.
