Letter from the Chairman

Important notices

This document does not take into account your individual investment objectives, financial situation, taxation position or needs. If you have any questions concerning the operation of the Westfield Group Stapled Securities Purchase Plan ("SPP"), its impact on you or your decision to participate in the SPP, please contact your stockbroker or other professional advisor.

The offer of stapled securities under the SPP is in accordance with Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") Class Orders 02/831 and 02/832 and ASIC Instrument 02/1202, that grant relief from the requirement to prepare a disclosure document for this offer as well as ASIC Class Order 05/26, as modified by ASIC Instrument 05/1203, which allows Westfield to set the issue price for the SPP at a discount to the prevailing market price. In New Zealand, the offer of stapled securities under the SPP is in accordance with the Securities Act (Overseas Companies) Exemption Notice 2002, which grants relief from the requirement to prepare an investment statement or prospectus for this offer.

The laws of some countries prohibit participation by some overseas Westfield Group securityholders or makes participation by these securityholders impractical. Unfortunately, Westfield Group securityholders who are not resident in Australia or New Zealand will be unable to participate in the SPP.

The securities discussed herein have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or under any state securities laws. This information booklet is not an offer of securities for sale in the United States and the securities discussed herein may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration. No offering of securities discussed herein will be made in the United States by the Westfield Group.

The Westfield Group reserves the right to reject any application for stapled securities under the SPP that it believes does not comply with the attached terms and conditions.

6 March 2009

I am pleased to offer you the opportunity to apply to participate in the Westfield Group Stapled Securities Purchase Plan ("SPP"), allowing you to purchase up to 498 Westfield Group stapled securities (at a price of $4,999.92) without brokerage and transaction costs.

Funds raised under the SPP will be used to further strengthen the Group's balance sheet through the retirement of debt.

Participation in the SPP is entirely voluntary.

Number of stapled securities	Application amount at $10.04 per stapled security
50	A$502
100	A$1,004
250	A$2,510
498	A$4,999.92

Stapled securities will be issued under the SPP at $10.04 per stapled security, which is the same price at which stapled securities were issued by Westfield under its distribution reinvestment plan for the distribution paid on 27 February 2009. This represented a discount of 2.5% to the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of stapled securities over the 10 ASX trading days ended 24 February 2009.

The new stapled securities issued under the SPP will rank for distributions from 1 January 2009 and will trade under the code WDC.

If you choose to participate in the SPP you will not pay any brokerage charges, commissions or other transaction costs. To apply for a parcel of Westfield Group stapled securities all you need to do is follow the instructions on the enclosed personalised application form. The SPP opens on 9 March 2009 and is expected to close at 5.00pm (Sydney time) on 31 March 2009.

This booklet sets out the details and terms and conditions of the SPP and I urge you to read it in its entirety before you decide whether to participate. If you have any concerns about what to do, you should consult your investment, financial, taxation or other professional adviser or call the Securities Purchase Plan information line on 1300 752 620 or +61 3 9415 4165 (outside Australia).

Yours sincerely

Frank P Lowy AC
Chairman

Frequently asked questions

Set out below are answers to certain frequently asked questions on the operation of the Westfield Group Stapled Securities Purchase Plan ("SPP"). The full Terms and Conditions of the SPP are set out on pages 7 to 10 of this booklet.

1 What is the Stapled Securities Purchase Plan?

The SPP provides certain Westfield Group securityholders with a convenient way to purchase additional stapled securities.

Participation is entirely voluntary. The offer is also non-renounceable, which means that securityholders cannot transfer their right to purchase stapled securities under the SPP to a third party.

2 Why is Westfield Group issuing more securities?

The proceeds of the issue of stapled securities under the SPP will be used to further strengthen the Group's balance sheet through the retirement of debt.

3 Who may participate in the SPP?

All Australian and New Zealand holders of Westfield Group stapled securities at 7.00pm on 26 February 2009 (Sydney time) ("Record Date") are eligible to participate. The laws of some countries prohibit participation by some overseas Westfield Group securityholders or makes participation by these securityholders impractical. Unfortunately, Westfield Group securityholders who are not resident in Australia or New Zealand are unable to participate in the SPP.

4 How much can I invest under the SPP?

You may only invest in stapled securities under the SPP up to a total value of A$4,999.92. You may only apply for parcels of stapled securities as follows:

Value of parcel	Number of stapled securities
A$502	50
A$1,004	100
A$2,510	250
A$4,999.92	498

5 What do I do if I receive more than one application form?

If you receive more than one copy of this document, or if you hold Westfield Group stapled securities in more than one capacity (e.g. because you are both a sole and joint holder), the maximum amount you may invest under the SPP in all capacities is A$4,999.92. This is because the maximum amount that may be raised by law from each securityholder on their own account under a securities purchase plan in any 12 month period is $5,000. By applying to purchase stapled securities under the SPP, you certify you have not exceeded this A$5,000 limit.

However, if you are a securityholder that is expressly recorded in the Westfield Group's security register as holding stapled securities as trustee or nominee for one or more persons (each a "beneficiary") then each beneficiary is taken to be an eligible securityholder for the purposes of the SPP and each such beneficiary may make an application through you as trustee or nominee to participate in the SPP.

Frequently asked questions

6 What is the issue price of the stapled securities?

The issue price of the stapled securities will be $10.04 per stapled security, which is the same price at which stapled securities were issued by Westfield under its distribution reinvestment plan for the distribution paid on 27 February 2009. This represented a discount of 2.5% to the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of stapled securities over the 10 ASX trading days ended 24 February 2009.

If you apply to participate in the SPP you are accepting the risk that the market price of the stapled securities may change between the Record Date, the date on which you apply to participate or make payment and the issue date. This means that, up to and/or after the issue date, you may be able to buy stapled securities on the ASX at a lower price than the issue price.

Your application is unconditional and cannot be withdrawn even if the market price of stapled securities is less than the issue price.

7 How many stapled securities will I receive?

The number of stapled securities that may be allotted to you under the SPP will be:

Value of parcel	Number of stapled securities
A$502	50
A$1,004	100
A$2,510	250
A$4,999.92	498

8 What rights will the new stapled securities have?

The stapled securities issued under the SPP will rank for distributions from 1 January 2009.

9 What are the costs?

Westfield Group securityholders participating in the SPP will pay no brokerage charges, commissions or other transaction costs in relation to the issue of stapled securities to them under the SPP. Stapled securities will be issued at $10.04 per stapled security being the same price at which stapled securities were issued under the Group's distribution reinvestment plan for the distribution paid on 27 February 2009.
