EQUUS MINING LIMITED

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

This Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 22 December 2023 and has been approved by the Board of Equus Mining Limited ('the Company') and its controlled entities (together with the Company, 'the Group') on that date. A copy can be found on the Company's website at www.equusmining.com.

This statement outlines the main Corporate Governance practices that were in place throughout the financial year, which comply with the Australian Stock Exchange ('ASX') Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations 4th Edition ('Recommendations') unless otherwise stated.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of the Company ('the Board') is committed to maintaining the highest standards of Corporate Governance. Corporate Governance is about having a set of core values and behaviours that underpin the Group's activities and ensure transparency, fair dealing and protection of the interests of stakeholders.

The Board supports the Principles of Good Corporate Governance and Best Practice Recommendations developed by the ASX Corporate Governance Council ('Council'). Whilst the Group's practices are largely consistent with the Council's guidelines, the Board considers that the implementation of some recommendations are not appropriate having regard to the nature and scale of the Group's activities and size of the Board. The Board uses its best endeavours to ensure exceptions to the Council's guidelines do not have a negative impact on the Group and the best interests of shareholders as a whole. When the Group is not able to implement one of the Council's recommendations the Group applies the 'if not, why not' explanation approach by applying practices in accordance with the spirit of the relevant principle.

The following discussion outlines the ASX Corporate Governance Council's eight principles and associated recommendations 9.1 through 9.3, and the extent to which the Group complies with those recommendations.

Details of all of the Council's recommendations can be found on the ASX website at www.asx.com.au

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

Board role and responsibilities

The Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to the policies, practices, management and operations of the Group. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance and management oversight of the Group and recognises the need for the highest standards of behaviour and accountability in acting in the best interests of the Group as a whole.

The Board also ensures that the Group complies with all of its contractual, statutory and any other legal or regulatory obligations. The Board has the final responsibility for the successful operations of the Group.

Where the Board considers that particular expertise or information is required, which is not available from within their members, appropriate external advice may be taken and reviewed prior to a final decision being made by the Board.

Without intending to limit the role of the Board, the principal functions and responsibilities of the Board include the following:

- formulation and approval of the strategic direction, objectives and goals of the Group;
- the prudential control of the Group's finances and operations, monitoring the financial performance and approving budgets and major expenditures of the Group,
- the resourcing, review and monitoring of performance of senior management;
- ensuring that adequate internal control systems and procedures exist and that compliance with these systems and procedures is maintained;
- the identification of significant business risks and ensuring that such risks are adequately managed;
- the timeliness, accuracy and effectiveness of communications and reporting to shareholders and the market;
- the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards;
- overseeing the integrity of the accounting and corporate reporting systems and the external audit process;
- approving the Group's remuneration framework; and
- monitoring the effectiveness of corporate governance practices.

Having regard to the current size of the Group and the nature of its activities and the composition and structure of the Board, those functions usually reserved to management for implementing the strategic objectives of the Group are the responsibility of the Managing Director.

The Company has followed Recommendation 1.1 by establishing the functions reserved to the Board and those delegated to senior executives as disclosed above.

EQUUS MINING LIMITED

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Appointment as a Director

The Company has followed Recommendation 1.2 by ensuring that the appointment of Directors who will come before shareholders for re-election at the Company's Annual General Meeting are suitable for the Group and equipped with the knowledge and information to discharge their roles adequately. In addition, the Company ensures that all relevant information that it possess is disclosed in the notice of meeting to enable shareholders to make a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director. The Company confirmed that it has conducted appropriate checks of a candidate background and experience before its appointment.

The Company has followed Recommendation 1.3 by having a written agreement with each Director and senior executive setting out the terms of their employment.

Company Secretary

The Company has followed Recommendation 1.4 by ensuring that the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

Diversity

Due to the size and scale of the Company's operations and the limited number of Directors and employees, the Company has not set up a diversity policy. Therefore Recommendation 1.5 has not been followed. However, the Company's Board does take into account the gender, age, ethnicity, and cultural background of potential Board members, Company executives and employees. Therefore, no measurable objectives has been set for achieving gender diversity. The Company is not a Relevant Employer (as defined by the Workplace Gender Equality Act) and advises that 28% of the employees are women employed directly by the Company, including as key management personnel, during the year ended 30 June 2023 10% of the employees were women employed directly by the Group.

Board performance review and evaluation

The Board has the policy to ensure that the Directors are equipped with the knowledge and information they need to effectively discharge their responsibilities. The Chairman evaluate the performance of the Board, individual Directors and committees on an on-going basis and speaks to Directors individually regarding their role as a Director. The Company confirmed that this process was undertaken during the year ended 30 June 2023. In doing so, the Company has followed Recommendation 1.6.

Senior executives performance review and evaluation

The Company employed a Country Manager for its project at Cerro Bayo. The Managing Director monitors and evaluate the performance of the senior executive on an ongoing basis and discusses the Country Managers' role. During the year ended 30 June 2023, the evaluation was not undertaken because the Country Manager left the Company during the year and the interim Country Manager has also recently left the Company. Therefore, Recommendation 1.7 is not followed.

Principle 2 – Structure the Board to add value

Board of Directors – composition and structure

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities, the composition and structure of the Board is adequate to discharge its responsibilities and duties.

Nomination Committee

The objective of a Nomination Committee is to make recommendations to the Board regarding various matters including board succession, recruitment, induction, professional development, performance evaluation, recommending an appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity as required. Due to the size and nature of the Company's operation a Nomination Committee has not been established, however, in accordance with Recommendation 2.1, the full Board has the responsibility for and performs the functions of a Nomination Committee. The Board from time to time consider the appropriateness skills of its members to address matters such as succession, recruitment etc.

Skills of the Board

The Board consists of a relevant blend of personal experience at director-level business and corporate experience required by the Group for effective decision-making. Directors are appointed based on the specific operational, corporate and governance skills required by the Group. The current mix of directors experience and background achieves those required skills by the Company. The Company follows Recommendation 2.2 by disclosing the Directors' qualifications, experience, date of appointment and independence status in the Board skill matrix below.

Code of conduct

In accordance with recommendation 3.2 the Group has adopted a formal Code of Conduct policy, which is available on the Company's website at www.equusmining.com. The Company confirmed that if there is a breach of the Code of Conduct the Director's are informed of breach.

Access to Group information and confidentiality

All Directors have the right of access to all relevant Group books and to the Group's executive management. In accordance with legal requirements and agreed ethical standards, Directors and executives of the Group have agreed to keep confidential information received in the course of exercising their duties and will not disclose non-public information except where disclosure is authorised or legally mandated.

Share dealings and disclosures

The Group has adopted a policy relating to the trading in Company securities. The Board restricts Directors, executives and employees from acting on material information until released to the market. Directors are required to consult with the Chairman prior to dealing in securities in the Company or other companies with which the Company has a material relationship.

Trading in Company securities by Directors, executives or employees is not permitted at any time whilst in the possession of price sensitive information that is not already available to the market. In addition, the Corporations Act prohibits the purchase or sale of securities whilst a person is in possession of inside information.

The trading windows for restricted persons is up to one week before and after 24 hours after the release of the Group's quarterly reports, half year results, the full year results or additional periods which are imposed by the Company when senior management becomes aware of a matter that is considered to be price sensitive. Restricted persons are prohibited from trading in the Company's securities outside these trading windows unless in special circumstances and with the approval of the Chairman.

Conflicts of interest

To ensure that Directors are at all times acting in the best interests of the Group, Directors must:

- disclose to the Board actual or potential conflicts of interest that may or might reasonably be thought to exist between the interests of the Director and the interests of any other parties in carrying out the activities of the Group; and
- if requested by the Board, within seven days or such further period as may be permitted, take such necessary and reasonable steps to remove any conflict of interest.

If a Director cannot, or is unwilling to remove a conflict of interest then the Director must, as required by the Corporations Act, absent himself from the room when Board discussion and/or voting occurs on matters about which the conflict relates.

Related party transactions

Related party transactions include any financial transaction between a Director and the Group as defined in the Corporations Act or the ASX Listing Rules. Unless there is an exemption under the Corporations Act from the requirement to obtain shareholder approval for the related party transaction, the Board cannot approve the transaction. The Group also discloses related party transactions in its financial statements as required under relevant Accounting Standards.

Whistleblower policy

The Company considers it vital that improper conduct should be managed through appropriate channels and protecting individuals who report this conducts or allegations of improper conduct are protected. In this regards, Equus has adopted a Whistleblower Policy and in doing so has followed Recommendation 3.3. a copy of the policy can be found on the Company's website at www.equusmining.com. The Company confirmed that no incident were reported under the Whistleblower policy.

Anti-bribery and anti-fraud policy

Having regard to the size of the Group and the level of activities and the composition and structure of the Board, the Company has not implemented an Anti-bribery and anti-fraud policy and consequently, it has not followed Recommendation 3.4. However. The Company is committed to a culture of corporate compliance and ethical behaviour.

Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

Audit Committee

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities and the composition and structure of the Board, an Audit Committee has not been established, however, in compliance with Recommendation 4.1, the full Board has the responsibility for and performs the following functions of an Audit Committee:

- the adequacy of the corporate reporting processes;
- the financial statements provide a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Company;
- the appropriateness of the accounting judgement in preparing the Company's financial statements;
- the appointment and removal of the external auditor;
- the scope and adequacy of the external audit and the rotation of the audit engagement partner;
- the fees payable to the auditor for audit and non-audit work; and
- the provision of non-audit services by the auditor does not compromise the independence of the external auditor the independence and performance of the external auditor.

CEO and CFO declarations

The Company has followed Recommendation 4.2. The Board has determined that the Managing Director and the CFO or the Company Secretary if the Company does not have a CFO are the appropriate persons to make the CEO and CFO declarations as required under section 295A of the Corporations Act.

The declaration confirms that, the internal control system is operating effectively in all material respects, the financial records of the Group have been properly maintained and the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Group.

The Company has followed Recommendation 4.3. From time to time, Equus releases periodic corporate reports which are not subject to review or audit by Equus's external auditor. Such is the case of "Appendix 5B Quarterly cash flow report". The Appendix 5B is subject to approval by the Board before it is release to the market.

Principle 5 – Make timely and balanced disclosure

Continuous Disclosure Policy

The Company has followed Recommendation 5.1 and has adopted a formal Continuous Disclosure Policy, which is available on the Company's website www.equusmining.com.

Continuous Disclosure to the ASX

The Board has designated the Managing Director and the Company Secretary as being responsible for overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure of information to the ASX as well as communicating with the ASX. Accordingly, the Company will notify the ASX promptly of information:

- concerning the Company, that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities; and
- that would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether to acquire or dispose of the Company's securities.

Announcements are made in a timely manner, are factual and do not omit material information in order to avoid the emergence of a false market in the Company's securities.

Prompt Board receipt of material market announcements

Equus's Company Secretary forward all ASX announcements to the Board as soon as they are released on the ASX platform whether the announcements are material or not. Therefore, the Company has followed Recommendation 5.2.

Investor or analyst presentations

The Company has followed Recommendation 5.3 whereby all investor or analyst presentations are first released via the ASX Platform before the commencement of the investor presentation or distribution of the presentation to investors.

EQUUS MINING LIMITED

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders

The Company has followed Recommendation 6.1 by keeping investors informed through the Company's website at www.equusmining.com, and on the ASX website, www.asx.com.au, under ASX code 'EQE' regarding information about the Group, the Board, policies, reports and ASX announcements.

The Company has followed Recommendations 6.2 and 6.3 by designing a communications policy that can be found at <https://www.equusmining.com> that promote effective communication with shareholders and to encourage their participation at general meetings.

The Board recognises its duty to ensure that its shareholders are informed of all major developments affecting the Group's state of affairs. Information is communicated to shareholders and the market through:

- the Annual Report which is distributed to shareholders (usually with the Notice of Annual General Meeting);
- the Annual General Meeting and other general meetings called to obtain shareholder approvals as appropriate;
- the half-yearly financial statements;
- quarterly activities and cash flow reports; and
- other announcements released to the ASX as required under the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and other information that may be mailed to shareholders or made available through the Company's website.

Shareholder meetings provide an open forum for the Board to communicate directly with security holders and for security holders to express their views and ask questions. Equus practice at security holder meetings, including the AGM, is that all resolutions are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands. Therefore, Equus has follow recommendation 6.4.

The Company has followed Recommendation 6.5 by actively promoting communication with shareholders through a variety of measures, including the use of the Company's website and email and electronically through the share registry on www.advancedshare.com.au/investors.aspx.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

Risk Committee

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities and the composition and structure of the Board, a Risk Committee has not been established, however, in compliance with Recommendation 7.1, the full Board has the responsibility for and performs the functions of a Risk Committee.

The full Board is responsible for the identification, monitoring and management of significant business risks, assessment of the Group's insurance program and the implementation of appropriate levels of internal control, recognising, however, that no cost effective internal control system will preclude all errors and irregularities.

Risk management

The Company has followed Recommendation 7.2, whereby the full Board regularly throughout the year reviews and monitors systems of external and internal controls and areas of significant operational, financial and property risk, and ensures arrangements are in place to contain such risks to acceptable levels. The Company confirmed that during the year ended 30 June 2023 this process was undertaken.

Internal audit function

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities, an internal audit function has not been established, however, in compliance with Recommendation 7.3, it is disclosed that the full Board carries out the risk management and internal audit functions to oversee the effectiveness of the company governance, risk management and internal control. The company confirm that this was undertaken during the year ended 30 June 2023 .

Risks and risk management

In compliance with Recommendation 7.4, the material manageable risks which the Group is exposed to include operational risks, capital risks and human resources risks as follows:

- obtaining government approvals;
- geological and environmental issues;
- land access and community disputes;
- the ability to raise additional capital;
- recruiting and retaining qualified personnel; and
- safety of field personnel.

The full Board is responsible to oversee the risk management function and the Managing Director is in charge of implementing an appropriate level of control to mitigate these risks within the Group. The full Board reviews all major Group strategies and decisions and takes appropriate actions on a continuous basis.

EQUUS MINING LIMITED

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

Remuneration Committee

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities and the composition and structure of the Board, a Remuneration Committee has not been formally established, however, in compliance with Recommendation 8.1, the full Board has the responsibility for and performs the following Remuneration Committee reviews:

- executive Director and senior executive remuneration;
- non-executive Directors remuneration;
- performance measurement policies and procedures;
- superannuation arrangements;
- incentive plans;
- equity-based plans;
- termination policies and procedures; and
- remuneration public disclosures.

The Company confirmed that for the year ended 30 June 2023, the Board review's the remuneration levels and in doing so, the Board balance a number of factors, including the company's desire to attract and retain high quality directors and senior executives and to make sure that no excessive remunerations are paid.

Remuneration policy

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities the company does not have a separate remuneration policy. However, in compliance with Recommendation 8.2, it is disclosed that the Group remunerates its Directors and senior executives based on fixed, equity-based and incentive component salary packages to reflect the short and long-term objectives of the Group.

The following remuneration guidelines have been adopted to ensure that remuneration arrangements are equitable, appropriate, and not excessive:

- Directors' remuneration is voted on for approval by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting;
- the full Board approves the salary and emoluments paid to senior executives;
- consultants are engaged as required pursuant to service agreements;
- the full Board ensures that fees, salaries and emoluments are in line with general standards for publicly listed companies of the size and type of the Group; and
- the salaries of Directors and key management personnel are disclosed in the Annual Report.

The Company has a policy to remunerate its directors and officers based on fixed and incentive component salary packages to reflect the short and long term objectives of the Company.

The salary component of non-executive and executive Directors is made up of:

- fixed remuneration;
- superannuation in accordance with legislation if Directors' fees are pay through payroll; and
- equity-based remuneration in the form of options when invited to participate by the Board subject to shareholders' approval.

Having regard to the size of the Group and the nature of its activities the Company does not have an equity base remuneration scheme. Therefore, the Company is not required to follow Recommendation 8.3

Principle 9 - Additional Recommendations

Recommendation 9.1 is not applicable as all Directors communicate in and are fluent in the English language.

Recommendation 9.2. The Company confirms that shareholder meetings, including the AGM, are held in Australia where the majority of shareholders reside and where the Company has its corporate office.

In accordance with Recommendation 9.3, the Company confirms that the external auditor has attended the Company's AGM by teleconference to be available to answer questions from shareholders with regard to the Company's audit.

This Corporate Governance Statement announcement has been approved by the Board of Equus Mining Limited.
