ASX Announcement / Media Release

Prodigy Investment Partners Announces New Partnership With Dalton Street Capital

Prodigy Investment Partners Limited ("Prodigy"), a joint venture between Euroz Limited ("Euroz" ASX Code: EZL) and Mr Steve Tucker, today announced details of its second boutique funds management partnership, Dalton Street Capital.

Dalton Street Capital is a quantitatively driven absolute return manager. By using both strategic and tactical investment strategies, it seeks to deliver superior absolute returns uncorrelated to major asset classes. The strategy has a 12-year track record of producing positive investment returns over various market cycles.

Dalton Street is headed by Alan Sheen and Nick Selvaratnam. Before joining Prodigy, Alan and Nick worked together at Credit Suisse where Alan was Head of Proprietary Trading and Nick was Head of Equities.

Prodigy believes key changes in the market are driving investor demand for more innovative investment solutions. Absolute return strategies that produce uncorrelated returns to the traditional asset classes are increasingly sought after. Dalton Street's strategy is squarely aimed at this need giving investors access to strong absolute returns through different market cycles.

Founding Partner of Dalton Street Capital, Mr Alan Sheen said "We are delighted to be teaming up with Prodigy and look forward to establishing a strong presence in the alternative investment and specifically absolute return market. Prodigy brings an innovative business model, infrastructure, capital and distribution capabilities which will provide a strong platform for the Dalton Street business."

Executive Chairman of Prodigy, Mr Steve Tucker said "We are excited to be able to partner with Alan and Nick in launching our second boutique partnership, Dalton Street Capital. We see increasing demand for investment strategies that focus on producing absolute returns, and with Alan and Nick's proven track record, we believe we can deliver great outcomes for clients."

Mr Andrew McKenzie, Executive Chairman of Euroz said "Euroz has been working hard to support the development of the Prodigy joint venture. The JV has been set up to implement our long term strategy to create and foster a quality, multi-boutique funds management business. Euroz understands the long term nature of funds management and is committed to provide all the support necessary for Prodigy and its boutique managers to be successful. Today we are delighted to announce Dalton Street Capital as the second in what will be a small number of high quality boutique investment partnerships".
