Section 1 DETAILS OF RIGHTS ISSUE

1.1 The Offer

This Prospectus offers via a non renounceable pro rata entitlements issue to Shareholders approximately 44,421,477 New Shares and 22,210,739 New Options on the basis of 1 New Share for every 4 Shares held at the Record Date at an issue price of 4.0 cents for each New Share and 1 New Option for every 2 New Shares applied for to raise approximately $2.2 million before issue costs. The offer is not underwritten.

1.2 Entitlement to Rights Issue

Eligible Shareholders who are on Norwest's Share Register at the close of business on the Record Date, being 5:00 pm on 2 March 2023, will receive Rights to acquire one (1) fully paid ordinary Share (each a "New Share") at an issue price of 4.0 cents ($0.04) per Share and one (1) free option attaching to every two (2) New Shares issued, having an exercise price of 7.0 cents ($0.07) and an expiry date of 5:00pm (AEDT) on the 5th anniversary of the New Option issue date (each a "New Option"), for every 4 ordinary Shares held as at the Record Date. The New Options will not be listed.

Fractional entitlements will be rounded up to the nearest whole number of New Shares and New Options, and therefore the maximum number of New Shares to be issued is approximate. For this purpose, holdings in the same name are not aggregated for calculation of Entitlements, however, if Norwest considers that holdings have been split to take advantage of rounding, Norwest reserves the right to aggregate holdings held by associated Shareholders for the purpose of calculating Entitlements.

An Entitlement and Acceptance Form setting out your Entitlement to New Shares and New Options accompanies this Prospectus. Once submitted an Entitlement and Application form is binding on you and cannot be withdrawn.

1.3 Applying for Additional New Shares – "Above Entitlement"

Entitlements not taken up may become available as Additional New Shares and New Options. Eligible Shareholders may, in addition to their Entitlement, apply for Additional New Shares and New Options regardless of the size of their present holding.

The allocation of Additional New Shares and New Options (if any) will depend on the availability of Entitlements not taken up and will be determined by the Board at its absolute discretion. It may be necessary to scale back allocations depending on the level of Applications received. The Board will determine the methodology used for any scale back at its absolute discretion however its intention is to scale back parri passu with the shareholdings of applicants.

It is an express term of the Offer that applicants for Additional New Shares and New Options will be bound to accept a lesser number of Additional New Shares and New Options allocated to them than applied for. If a lesser number is allocated to them, excess Application Money will be refunded without interest. There can be no guarantee that you will receive any Additional New Shares and New Options applied for, and you may receive all, some or none of them.

1.4 Use of proceeds

Norwest could raise up to approximately $2.2 million under the Rights Issue before Offer costs and will use the proceeds as set out in Section 2. There is no minimum amount. If less than $2.2 million is raised, the Company reserves the right to change the use of the proceeds as they see fit to meet the needs of the Company.

1.5 Actions Required by Shareholders

An explanation of the actions required by Shareholders is set out in Section 3.

1.6 Allotment and Application Money

All Eligible Shareholders who accept the Offer will receive their Entitlement in full.

New Shares and New Options will be issued only after all Application Money has been received and ASX has granted permission for the New Shares to be quoted. It is expected that New Shares and New Options will be issued on 27 March 2023 and trading of the New Shares on ASX is expected to commence thereafter.

All Application Money received before New Shares and New Options are issued will be held in a special purpose account. Excess Application Money received for Additional New Shares and New Options if not accepted will be refunded without interest. Upon allotment of New Shares and New Options the balance of funds in the account plus accrued interest will be received by the Company. If the New Shares are not quoted by ASX within three months after the date of this Prospectus, Norwest will refund all Application Money in full (without interest).

1.7 Closing Date

The Closing Date for acceptance of your Entitlement is 5:00 pm AEDT on 20 March 2023. The Directors reserves the right to close the Offer early, extend the Closing Date or cancel the Rights Issue at any time prior to allotment, subject to the Corporations Act and Listing Rules.

1.8 Treatment of Overseas Shareholders

The Offer in this Prospectus is not being extended to any Shareholder, as at the Record Date, whose registered address is not situated in Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore because of the small number of such Shareholders, the cost of complying with applicable regulations in jurisdictions outside Australia and the value of the Securities offered. The Prospectus is sent to those Shareholders for information only.

This document does not constitute an offer of New Shares or New Options in any jurisdiction in which it would be unlawful. Recipients may not send or otherwise distribute this Prospectus or the Entitlement and Acceptance Form to any person outside Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia and Singapore (other than to Eligible Shareholders).

WARNING: The contents of this Prospectus have not been reviewed or approved by any regulatory authority in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore. You are advised to exercise caution in relation to the Offer. If you are in any doubt about any of the contents of this Prospectus, you should obtain independent professional advice.

This Prospectus is confidential to the person to whom it is addressed and no person to whom a copy of this Prospectus is issued may issue, circulate, distribute, publish, reproduce or disclose (in whole or in part) this Prospectus to any other person in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore for use for any purpose in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore.

Copies of this Prospectus may be issued to a limited number of persons in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore in a manner which does not constitute any issue, circulation or distribution of this Prospectus, or any offer or an invitation in respect of these securities, to the public in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore. This Prospectus is for the exclusive use of Norwest shareholders in connection with the Offer. No steps have been taken to register or seek authorisation for the issue of this Prospectus in New Zealand, Malaysia or Singapore.

The New Shares and the New Options are not being offered to the public within New Zealand other than to existing shareholders of the Company with registered addresses in New Zealand to whom the offer of these securities is being made in reliance on the Financial Markets Conduct (Incidental Offers) Exemption Notice 2021. This document has been prepared in compliance with Australian law and has not been registered, filed with or approved by any New Zealand regulatory authority under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013. This document is not a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law and is not required to, and may not, contain all the information that a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law is required to contain.

1.9 Rights and liabilities attaching to New Shares and New Options

From Issue, the New Shares issued under this Prospectus will rank equally in all respects with existing Shares and upon exercise of the New Options, if this should occur, the resulting shares from exercise shall rank equally with existing Shares. Summaries of the important rights attaching to Shares, as set out in the Company's Constitution, and rights attaching to New Options are contained in Section 5 of this Prospectus. There are no liabilities attaching to New Shares and New Options.

1.10 Investment risks

Section 4 outlines the key risk factors involved in investing in Norwest. The risks identified by the Directors are not exhaustive. The Directors consider that the key risks include no guarantee of exploration success and no guarantee of a profitable development of any discovery. These risks, together with other general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities not specifically referred to, may affect the value of the New Shares and New Options in the future. Accordingly, an investment in the Company should be considered highly speculative. Shareholders should read this Prospectus in full and seek professional advice if they require further information on material risks in deciding whether to subscribe for New Shares and New Options.

1.11 Target Market Determination

In accordance with the design and distribution obligations under the Corporations Act, the Company has determined the target market for the offer of the Options issued under this Prospectus. The Company will only distribute this Prospectus to those investors who fall within the target market determination (TMD) as set out on Annexure 1. By making an application under the Offer, you warrant that you have read and understood the TMD and that you fall within the target market set out in the TMD.

1.12 No prospective financial forecasts

The Company is a mineral exploration company. Given the speculative nature of exploration, mineral development and production and the status of the Company's exploration projects there is no basis for the Directors to forecast future revenue and they do not do so.

1.16 Effect on Financial Position of the Company

Section 2 PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE RIGHTS ISSUE

2.1 Purpose of the Rights Issue

The net funds raised from the issue of New Shares and New Options through the Offer before payment of all associated costs, may provide the Company with up to approximately $2.2 million in additional capital before costs.

The funds raised will enable Norwest to continue its proposed drilling programs as described within Section 2.1 of this document in an ordered and efficient manner. The use and allocation of capital may need to alter during the course of the Company's priorities and programs. Extra funds may be re-allocated to any particular project according to results and needs. The Directors believe that the capital raised will also provide them with a cash reserve that will give them the ability to take advantage of any opportunities which arise which are complementary to the Company's direction.

The funds raised by the issue of the New Shares will be used by the Company to pursue the following at the discretion of the Company's Board:

- the projects listed below;
- repayment of director loans under the Director Loan agreement; and
- general working capital purposes.

The proposed use of funds is as follows:

Approximate Use of Funds	$A
Bali Copper project – 15-hole (1,700m) RC drill program to test copper mineralisation identified from maiden drilling along Bali shear and surface exploration at the Deep South area in 2022.	$690,000
Arunta West project - Phase 2 and further step out drilling of a potential clay hosted REE prospect along a granite-sediment contact where a 20-hole Phase 1 program recently confirmed strong TREO values in the Bitter Springs sediments.	$680,000
Resource estimation and metallurgical testwork for the new REE discovery.	$120,000
Marymia East project - a 3,000m aircore drilling program designed to test several gold and base metals anomalies.	$310,000
Repay Director Loans and Working capital	$400,000
Total*	2,200,000

In the event that the Offer is fully subscribed, the estimated expenses of the Offer, including ASX listing fees, legal fees, share registry expenses, printing and postage costs are $45,000.

The Directors reserve the right to make any adjustments to the use of funds as they see fit to manage the needs of the Company. Additional funds up to a maximum value of approximately $1.9 million may become available to the Company, should the New Options be exercised, however, the Company is not relying on these additional funds for its planned work programs.

Directors who are major Shareholders holding in aggregate 48,569,223 Shares at the Record Date have given commitments to take up their respective full Entitlements under the Offer. This equates to raising funds of approximately $486,000 by the issue of approximately 9,713,800 New Shares to these major Shareholders.

Subject to this major Shareholder commitment, participation in the Offer is at the discretion of each Eligible Shareholder. There is a risk that, if less than anticipated funds are raised, the Company will not be able to pursue its stated strategy. In these circumstances the Directors reserve the right to use funds received as they see fit to meet the needs of the Company.

2.2 Effects of the Rights Issue

The principal effects of the Rights Issue will be to:

- increase the Company's cash reserves by up to approximately $2.2 million before taking into account the costs of the Rights Issue;
- provide the Company with additional capital for the purposes referred to in Section 2.1, thus enabling the orderly and efficient execution of work programs; and
- increase the total number of issued Shares (refer Section 2.3).

2.3 Effect of the Rights Issue on capital structure

The effect of the Rights Issue on the Company's issued share capital will be as follows:

Ordinary Shares	Number	% Equity
Existing Shares	222,107,387	80.0
Issue under Share Offer *	55,526,847	20.0
Totals	277,634,234	100.0

Options	No	%'age
Existing Options (exercisable at $0.20 by September 2023)	2,384,500	2.1
Existing Options (exercisable at $0.25 by September 2023)	2,384,500	2.1
Listed Options (ASX: NWMO)	56,633,506	50.0
Options exercisable at 6.9c	6,500,000	5.7
Options exercisable at 10.5c	10,500,000	9.3
Options exercisable at 14c	7,000,000	6.2
New Options as part of Offer (exercisable at $0.07 by 5 th anniversary of date of New Option issue)	27763424	24.5
Total Options	113,165,930	100%

* This number and the corresponding maximum amount to be raised is approximate. It assumes that as at the Record Date all Shareholders are Eligible Shareholders, and that no Eligible Shareholder applies for more than their Entitlement. It also does not take into account rounding up of Entitlements.

Shareholders who do not participate in the Offer will be diluted. The amount of the dilution will depend on the number of Shares held by non-participating holders and the number of New Shares actually issued.

The Rights Issue is not expected to have a significant impact on the control of the Company because:

- The Rights Issue gives an entitlement to Shares pari passu with current holdings therefore Shareholders can maintain their current proportionate interest in the Company's Shares without being diluted by taking up their entitlements;
- Large Shareholders have advised that they will take up their entitlements in full.

The financial information prepared below is prepared in accordance with Australian equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AIFRS).

*The potential funds on completion of the Offer (using 30 June 2022 closing cash as a starting point) does not represent the actual or prospective cash or financial position of Norwest. The above table does not take into account activities of the Company since 1 July 2022 and this expenditure is not recognised in the pro-forma Statement of Financial Position. The above table does not take into account the costs of the Offer and the Director Loan agreements which will be repaid from the proceeds of the Rights Issue.

The Offer will therefore have the effect of increasing the Company's cash assets by approximately $2.2m before costs, assuming all Entitlements are taken up. As disclosed in the ASX Appendix 5B lodged on 30 January 2023, as at 31 December 2022 the Company held $819,000 in cash. Since that time, it has incurred further expenses.

Eligible Shareholders who have applied for their full Entitlement may, in addition to their Entitlement, apply for Additional New Shares and New Options as described in Section 1.3. There is no limit to the amount of Additional New Shares and New Options you may apply for, however there can be no guarantee that you will receive all or any of the Additional New Shares and New Options applied for.

A single payment should be used for the Application Money for your Entitlement and the number of Additional New Shares and New Options you wish to apply for as stated on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

Payment may also be made by BPAY or EFT, utilising the reference numbers and details from your personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

3.4 Taking up part of your Entitlement and allowing the balance to lapse

If you wish to take up part of your Entitlement and allow the balance to lapse, complete the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form for the number of New Shares and New Options you wish to take up and follow the steps required in accordance with Section 3.6. If you take no further action, the balance of your Entitlement will lapse.

3.5 Allow all your Entitlement to lapse

The Offer is non-renounceable, therefore any part of your Entitlement that is not accepted will lapse and you will receive no benefit from it. Your Entitlement may be used to satisfy an Eligible Shareholder's application for Additional New Shares and New Options. Further, the Norwest

Board reserves the right to place any Shortfall Shares on the same terms as set out in this Prospectus within the three months after the Closing Date.

3.6 Payment

(a) Payment by BPAY®

To apply and pay via BPAY, you should:

- Read this Prospectus and the Entitlement and Acceptance Form in their entirety and seek appropriate professional advice if necessary; and
- Make your payment via BPAY for the number of New Shares and New Options you wish to subscribe for (being the Offer Price of $0.04 per New Share multiplied by the number of New Shares you are applying for) so that it is received by no later than 5:00pm (AEDT) on 20 March 2023. You can only make a payment via BPAY if you hold an account with an Australian financial institution.

If you choose to pay via BPAY, you are not required to submit the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

(b) Payment by EFT

To apply and pay via EFT, you should:

- Read this Prospectus and the Entitlement and Acceptance Form in their entirety and seek appropriate professional advice if necessary; and
- Make your payment via EFT for the number of New Shares and New Options you wish to subscribe for (being the Offer Price of $0.04 per New Share multiplied by the number of New Shares you are applying for) so that it is received by no later than 5:00pm (AEDT) on 20 March 2023. IMPORTANT: You must quote your unique reference number as shown on your personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form as your payment reference/description when processing your EFT payment. Failure to do so may result in your funds not being allocated to your application and Shares subsequently not issued.

If you choose to pay via EFT, you are not required to submit the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

If you make payment by 5:00pm (AEDT) on 20 March 2023, New Shares and New Options are expected to be allotted to you on 27 March 2023.

If you have multiple holdings you will have multiple BPAY and EFT reference numbers. To ensure you receive your Entitlement in respect of that holding, you must use the customer reference number for BPAY or unique reference number for EFT shown on each personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form when paying for any New Shares and New Options that you wish to apply for in respect of that holding.

Applicants should be aware that their own financial institution may implement earlier cut off times with regards to electronic payment, and should therefore take this into consideration when making payment. You may also have your own limit on the amount that can be paid via BPAY or EFT. It is your responsibility to check that the amount you wish to pay via BPAY or EFT does not exceed your limit.

If the amount of payment is insufficient to pay in full for the number of New Shares and New Options you applied for, you will be taken to have applied for such whole number of New Shares and New Options which is covered in full by your payment to the extent that this does not exceed your Entitlement. If the amount of payment you make exceeds your Entitlement, the excess will be taken to be an application for Additional New Shares to the amount of the excess. Alternatively, Norwest may in its discretion reject your Application, in which case any payment will be refunded to you after the allotment date in accordance with the Corporations Act, without interest.

If you apply for Additional New Shares and Additional New Options in excess of your Entitlement and you are not allocated all or some of the Additional New Shares and Additional New Options, the relevant payment will be refunded to you after the allotment date in accordance with the Corporations Act, without interest.

Section 4 RISK FACTORS

The New Shares and New Options offered under this Prospectus are considered highly speculative because of the inherent risks associated with minerals exploration and appraisal and the current status of the Company's exploration projects. In addition, there are risks inherent in investing in the share market in general, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors.

The Directors have considered and identified in this section of the Prospectus the critical areas of risk associated with investing in the New Shares and New Options. The risks identified by the Directors are not exhaustive and potential investors should read this Prospectus in full and seek professional advice if they require further information on material risks in deciding whether to subscribe for New Shares and New Options.

4.1 Specific Risks

4.1.1 Exploration Risks

The Company's projects are at the exploration stage on all prospects. The business of minerals exploration, project development and production involves risks by its very nature. There can be no assurance that exploration of the tenements, or any other tenement in which the Company may acquire an interest in the future, will result in the discovery of an economic mineral deposit. Even if an apparent viable mineral deposit is identified, there is no guarantee that it will be able to be profitably exploited.

Any exploitation of a deposit will involve the need to obtain the necessary licences or clearances from relevant authorities, and renewals of licences and permits, which may require conditions to be satisfied and/or the exercise of discretions by such authorities. It may or may not be possible for such conditions to be satisfied. Exploration and development may be hampered by mining, heritage and environmental legislation, industrial disputes, cost overruns, land claims and compensation and other unforeseen contingencies.

Exploration may ultimately be unsuccessful, resulting in a reduction of the value of the Company's projects, diminution in the cash reserves of the Company and possible relinquishment of the exploration tenements. Outcomes of any exploration program outlined in this Prospectus will affect the future performance of the Company and its Shares.

4.1.2 Production Risks

Operations such as design and construction of efficient mining and processing facilities, competent operation and managerial performance, and efficient transport and marketing services, are required to be successful. In particular, production operations can be hampered by force majeure circumstances, engineering difficulties, cost overruns, inconsistent recovery rates and other unforeseen events. In the event the Company's exploration projects identify economic deposits, development of production may be affected by these and many other matters.

4.1.3 Access to Land

Significant delays may be experienced in gaining access to privately owned freehold or leasehold land. Delays may be caused by weather, deference to landholders' activities such as cropping, harvesting, calving and mustering, and other factors.

4.1.4 Cultural Heritage

Delays may be experienced if evidence of Aboriginal cultural heritage exists on any land to which the Company requires access.

When exercising a right or permission for access to any land, it is an offence, to disturb physical evidence of human occupation of prehistoric or historic significance without statutory permission. This restriction applies to any activity including minerals exploration and production.

The Company has not undertaken the comprehensive research, investigations or enquiries which would be necessary to enable it to form an opinion with certainty as to whether any such evidence exists on any land covered by Norwest's tenements.

4.1.5 Environmental Impact Constraints

The Company's exploration and appraisal programs will, in general, be subject to approval by government authorities. Development of any mineral resources will be dependent on the Company being able to obtain environmental approvals to carry out its planned activities, and then being able to meet all environmental conditions placed on such activities.

4.1.6 Exploration and Appraisal Expenditure

Exploration and appraisal is a process subject to unforeseen contingencies. Exploration programs must be flexible enough to respond to the results obtained.

The actual scope, costs and timetables of exploration programs may differ substantially from the proposals set out in this Prospectus. Financial failure, or default by any future alliance or joint venture partner of the Company, may require the Company to face unplanned expenditure or risk forfeiting relevant tenements.

4.1.7 Funding

Unless and until the Company develops or acquires income producing assets, it will be dependent upon its existing financial resources as augmented by the funds raised by this Offer, and its ability to obtain future equity or debt funding to support exploration evaluation and development of the properties in which it has an interest together with general operating expenses. The Company's ability to raise further equity or debt or to divest part of its interest in a project, and the terms of such transactions, will vary according to a number of factors, including the success of exploration results and the future development of the Company's projects, stock market conditions and prices for metals in world markets. As such, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to raise sufficient funds to pursue its business activities on acceptable terms, or at all. Any future equity or debt raisings may be significantly dilutive to existing Shareholders, and may involve restrictive covenants that impact the Company's business activities.

As stated, participation in the Offer is at the discretion of each Eligible Shareholder. There is a risk that, if less than anticipated funds are raised, the Company will not be able to pursue its stated strategy, which may be delayed or suspended. In these circumstances the Directors reserve the right to use funds received as they see fit to meet the needs of the Company.

4.1.8 Key Personnel

The ability of the Company to achieve its objectives depends on the access to key personnel and external contractors who constitute its technical panel and provide technical expertise. If the Company cannot secure technical expertise (for example to carry out drilling) or if the services of the present technical panel cease to become available to the Company, this may affect the Company's ability to achieve its objectives either fully or within the timeframes and the budget the Company has decided upon.

Whilst the ability of the Company to achieve its objectives may be affected by the matters mentioned above, the Directors believe that appropriately skilled and experienced professionals would be available to provide services to the Company at market levels of remuneration in the event key external contractors cease to be available.

4.1.9 Volatility in the price of minerals

Commodity prices are influenced by the physical and investment demand for those commodities. Fluctuations in commodity prices may influence timing, viability and management of projects in which the Company has an interest.

4.1.10 Volatility in the market price of Shares

Although the Company is listed on the Official List, there is no assurance that an active trading market for its Shares or the Securities will be sustained. There is also no assurance that the market price for the Securities will not decline below the issue price. The market price of the Company's Shares and Securities could be subject to significant fluctuations due to various external factors and events, including the liquidity of the Shares and Securities in the market, any difference between the Company's actual financial or operating results and broader market-wide fluctuations. Furthermore, any stock market volatility and weakness could result in the market price of the Shares and Securities decreasing so that they trade at prices significantly below the issue price, without regard to the Company's operating performance. Equally, the market price of the Shares may be less than the exercise price of the New Options at the date the New Options are exercisable.

4.1.11 Negative publicity may adversely affect the Share Price

Any negative publicity or announcement relating to any of our substantial shareholders or key personnel may adversely affect the stock performance of the Company, whether or not this is justifiable. Examples of this negative publicity or announcement may include involvement in legal or insolvency proceedings, failed attempts in takeovers, joint ventures or other business transactions.

4.1.12 Insurance Risks

The Company maintains insurance coverage that is substantially consistent with exploration industry practice. However, there is no guarantee that such insurance or any future necessary coverage will be available to the Company at economically viable premiums (if at all) or that, in the event of a claim, the level of insurance carried by the Company now or in the future will be adequate, or that a liability or other claim would not materially and adversely affect the Company's business.

4.1.13 Construction Capital Costs

The Company is conscious that in the future, there could be competition for skilled labour and key materials, and the impact of these factors could be that there are upward costs pressures on any forecasts.

4.1.14 Government Regulation and Policy

The Company's tenements may be subject to extensive regulation by local, state and federal governments in relation to exploration, development, production, exports, taxes and royalties, labour standards, occupational health, waste disposal, protection and rehabilitation of the environment, mine reclamation, mine safety, toxic and radioactive substances, native title and other matters. Compliance with such laws and regulations will increase the costs of exploring, drilling, developing, constructing, operating and closing mines and other production facilities.

There can be no assurance that future government policy will not change and this may adversely affect the long term prospects of the Company. In addition, future changes in governments, regulations and policies may have an adverse impact on the Company.

4.1.15 Native Title

The existence of native title and/or native title claims in relation to the land on which the Company operates may have an adverse impact on the Company's activities and its ability to fund those activities. It is impossible at this stage to quantify the impact that these matters may have on the Company's operations but the main risks include:

- Delays or difficulties in obtaining the grant of the applications for authorities, renewals or conversions of the authorities, or further applications, as a result of the right to negotiate process, as this process can take as long as 2 years.
- Compensation may be payable by the Company as a result of agreements made pursuant to the right to negotiate or alternative process or as a result of a compensation order made by the Federal Court in the event native title has been determined to exist. The amount of such compensation is not quantifiable at this stage.
- If native title is found to exist the nature of the native title may be such that consent to mining is required from the native title holders but is withheld or only granted on conditions unacceptable to the Company.
- The risk that Aboriginal sites and objects exist on the land the subject of the authorities, the existence of which sites and objects may preclude or limit mining activities in certain areas of the authorities. Further, the disturbance of such sites and objects is likely to be an offence under the applicable legislation, exposing the Company to fines and other penalties.

4.2 General Risks

4.2.1 General Economic Climate

Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, legislative changes, political decisions and industrial disruption have an impact on operating costs and on metals prices.

The Company's future income, asset values and share price can be affected by these factors and, in particular, by the market price for any metals that the Company may produce and sell.

4.2.2 Stock Market Conditions

The market price of the New Shares and New Options when quoted on the ASX will be influenced by international and domestic factors affecting conditions in equity and financial markets. These factors may affect the prices for the securities of minerals exploration companies quoted on the ASX, including Norwest.

The stock market has in the past and may in the future be affected by a number of matters including:

- commodity prices;
- market confidence;
- supply and demand for money; and
- currency exchange rates.

4.2.3 Commodity Prices May Go Down

The demand for, and price of, commodities is highly dependent on a variety of factors, including international supply and demand, the level of consumer product demand, weather conditions, the price and availability of alternative commodities, actions taken by governments and international cartels, and global economic and political developments. Commodity prices have fluctuated widely in recent years and may continue to fluctuate significantly in the future. Fluctuations in commodity prices and, in particular, a material decline in the price of commodities may have a materially adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

4.2.4 Governments May Stop Exploration and Production Activities

Any material adverse changes in government policies or legislation of the various countries in which it operates affecting mining and exploration activities may affect the viability and profitability of the Company.

4.2.5 Foreign Currency and Exchange Rate Fluctuations

Revenue and expenditure of the Company may be denominated in currencies other than Australian dollars and as such expose the Company to foreign exchange movements, which may have a positive or negative influence on the Australian dollar equivalent of such revenue and expenditure.

The Company will appropriately monitor and assess such risks and may from time to time implement measures, such as foreign exchange currency hedging, to assist manage these risks. However, the implementation of such measures may not eliminate all such risks and the measures themselves may expose the Company to related risks.

4.2.6 Speculative Nature of Investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the Securities offered under this Prospectus.

Therefore, the Securities to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those Shares.

Eligible Shareholders should consider that the investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for New Shares and New Options in the Company.

Section 6 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

6.1 Nature of the Prospectus

The Company is a “disclosing entity” (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company’s securities. The New Shares which will be issued pursuant to this Prospectus are in the same class as Shares that have been quoted on the official list of the ASX during the 12 months prior to the issue of this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is a prospectus to which the special content rules under section 713 of the Corporations Act apply. That provision allows the issue of a more concise prospectus in relation to an offer of securities in a class which has been continuously quoted by ASX in the three months prior to the date of the prospectus, and options over such continuously quoted securities. In general terms “transaction specific prospectuses” are only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of New Shares and New Options on the Company and the rights attaching to the New Shares and New Options. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 12 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act, states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) copies of documents lodged with ASX or ASIC (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, an ASIC office; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request between the date of issue of this Prospectus and the Closing Date:
 - (i) the most recent annual financial statements of the Company lodged with the ASIC before the issue of this Prospectus;
 - (ii) any half year report of the Company lodged with ASIC after the lodgment of the annual financial report in (i) above and before the lodgment of this Prospectus; and

NORWEST MINERALS LIMITED

- (iii) any documents used to notify ASX of information relating to the Company in the period from lodgement of the financial statements referred to in paragraph (i) above until the issue of the Prospectus in accordance with the Listing Rules as referred to in section 674(1) of the Corporations Act.

Copies of all documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company can be inspected at the registered office of the Company during normal office hours.

Annexure 1

TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION Made by: Norwest Minerals Limited (ACN 622 979 275) (Company).

Product: Free attaching options in connection with a Non-Renounceable Entitlement Offer under a prospectus dated 24 February 2023 (Options).

Effective date: 24 February 2023.

This target market determination (TMD) has been prepared by the Company in relation to an offer to issue the Options made by the Company under a prospectus dated 24 February 2023 (Prospectus). A copy of the Prospectus is available on the Company's website, www.norwestminerals.com.au

The offer will be made under, or accompanied by, a copy of the Prospectus. Any recipient of this TMD should carefully read and consider the Prospectus in full and consult their professional adviser if they have any questions regarding the contents of the Prospectus.

Any recipient of this TMD who wants to acquire Options under the offer will need to complete the application form that will be in, or will accompany, the Prospectus. There is no cooling off period in respect of the issue of the Options.

Application will be made for the attaching Options to be quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX), subject to compliance with any conditions imposed by ASX. Subject to the commencement of quotation, the attaching Options will be transferable on ASX.

This TMD is not a disclosure document for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), and therefore has not been lodged, and does not require lodgement, with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). This TMD does not take into account what you currently have, or what you want and need, for your financial future. It is important for you to consider these matters and read the Prospectus before you make an investment decision.

The Company is not licensed to provide financial product advice in relation to the Options.

1. TARGET MARKET

Investment Objective

The Company expects that an investment in Options will be suitable to investors who wish to gain exposure to equities in a mining company listed on the ASX.

Investment Timeframe

The target market of investors will take a short to medium term outlook on their investment. Investors with a short-term outlook for their investment will benefit from an ability to exercise Options and trade the underlying shares issued on exercise should the Option exercise price of the Options be lower than the trading price of shares. Investors with a medium-term outlook will benefit from an ability to exercise Options within the five-year term of the Options and increase their shareholding and exposure to the potential upside in the Company's shares into the future.

Given the need to pay the exercise price in order to acquire shares, investors in the target market are in a financial position that is sufficient for them to invest their funds on exercise the Options over a five-year time horizon, during which their ability to liquidate their Options in the Company may be limited by the trading price of shares.

Investment Metrics

While the Company does not have an established eligibility framework for investors based on metrics such as age, expected return or volatility, it is expected that the target market of investors will be able to withstand potential fluctuations in the value of their investment. The Options offer no guaranteed income or capital protection.

Risk

The Company considers that an investment in the underlying shares is highly speculative, such that an investment in the Company is not appropriate for an investor who would not be able to bear a loss of some or all of the investment. As the Options are issued at nil cost, investors should consider this when deciding whether or not to exercise an Option. Investors should also have a sufficient level of financial literacy and resources (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate adviser) to understand and appreciate the risks of investing in Options as an asset class generally and the more specific risks of investing in an Australian listed mining company.

Further risks are disclosed in the Risk Factors section of the Prospectus.

2. DISTRIBUTION CONDITIONS

The offer of Options under the Prospectus is being made to those shareholders in the Company registered at the record date specified in the Prospectus (Eligible Shareholders). Any entitlement not taken up under the offer will form a shortfall offer (Shortfall Offer). Eligible Shareholders may also subscribe for Options above their entitlement under the Shortfall Offer. The Prospectus will include jurisdictional conditions on eligibility. The Company will include a copy of this TMD on its website along with the Prospectus. The Company considers that these distribution conditions will ensure that persons who invest in Options fall within the target market in circumstances where personal advice is not being provided to those persons by the Company.

3. REVIEW TRIGGERS

The Options are being offered for a limited offer period set out in the Prospectus, after the conclusion of which the Options will no longer be available for investment by way of issue. It follows that the TMD will only apply in the period between the commencement of the offer of the Options and the issue of the Options shortly after the close of the Offer (Offer Period).

To allow the Company to determine whether circumstances exist that indicate this TMD is no longer appropriate to the Options and should be reviewed, the following review triggers apply for the Offer Period:

- (a) a new offer of Options that requires preparation of a disclosure document is made after completion of the Offer Period;
- (b) any event or circumstance that would materially change a factor taken into account in making this TMD;
- (c) the existence of a significant dealing of the Options that is not consistent with this TMD. The Company does not consider that an on-sale of the Options on market is a significant dealing;
- (d) ASIC raises concerns with the Company regarding the adequacy of the design or distribution of the Options or this TMD; and
- (e) material changes to the regulatory environment that applies to an investment in the Options.

4. REVIEW PERIOD

If a review trigger occurs during the Offer Period, the Company will undertake a review of the TMD in light of the review trigger. The Company will otherwise complete a review of the TMD immediately prior to the issue of Options under the Offer.

5. INFORMATION REPORTING

The reporting requirements of all distributors is set out below.

During the Offer Period, the distributor is to make a report within 10 business days after the end of each quarter. A report is also to be made 10 business days after the end of the Offer Period.
