- SCEE subsidiary Heyday5 awarded over $50m of new contracts
- Heyday5 tendering levels remain high against a large opportunity pipeline

Southern Cross Electrical Engineering Limited ('SCEE') is pleased to announce that its recently acquired Sydney-based subsidiary Heyday5 Pty Limited has been awarded over $50m of new contracts. The scope of works in these contracts includes for the design and construction of electrical, communications and security services.

The new projects include:

- ATP Redfern Building 1, NSW – stage one of 93,000 square metres of office space for Commonwealth Bank staff.
- The Ribbon Project, NSW – 74,000 square metres development in Darling Harbour of 402 room W Hotel and 159 serviced apartments including the re-development of the IMAX Theatre.
- Greenland Centre Bathurst Street, NSW – Sydney's tallest luxury residential tower with 479 apartments.
- Midnight Project, ACT – Midnight will be Canberra's first high density development located along the new light rail route, consisting of a mix of commercial, retail, hotel and residential zones.

Commenting on the awards SCEE Managing Director, Graeme Dunn, said "Heyday5 was acquired to enable SCEE to diversify into the buoyant east coast commercial market and it is pleasing to be able to announce these successes so soon after the transaction. The awards provide a significant boost to Heyday5's already healthy order book and their tendering levels remain high against a large opportunity pipeline."
